

Bob Young Bio

Born in Southern California and grew up in Thomson, Georgia. Attended Wofford College and Augusta State University. Served four years in the U. S. Air Force, including two years with the Military Assistance Command Vietnam. After completing a 26 year career in radio and television broadcast journalism in Augusta, GA was elected and served two terms as mayor of Augusta. Served in the administration of President George W. Bush as a member of the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation, Southeast Regional Director of the Department of Housing and Urban Development and Assistant Deputy Secretary of HUD. Currently, business manager for the DoD dependent schools at Laurel Bay, SC. On November first will leave federal service to become President/CEO of the Southeastern Natural Sciences Academy in Augusta. Also, owner and President of Eagle Veterans Services LLC, an industrial supply company based in Augusta.

Author of "The Treasure Train." Emmy nominee for the Civil War documentary "The Great March." Extra in several movies, including "The Blind Side" and "Get Low."

Member of FEMA's Disaster Reserve Assistance program. Led the HUD field response to Hurricane Katrina in Florida, Alabama and Mississippi.

Married to Gwen Fulcher Young, President of Gwen Fulcher Young and Associates Real Estate Company in Augusta. Gwen is a member of the Georgia Real Estate Commission.

We have owned our condominium at Cedar Reef since 2004 and thoroughly enjoy the time we spend on Harbor Island.

I am offering for the Board of Directors because I desire to put my years of business and government experience to work to ensure Harbor Island's future as an environmentally sensitive and economically sustainable community.