

Dear Harbor Island Property Owner,

The election process for the Board of Directors of Harbor Island Owners Association has begun. If you are interested in serving on the Board, please complete and sign the attached candidate application form and mail it back to the HIOA office.

The nomination and balloting process will follow this calendar.

- August 21nd post marked deadline for returning candidate application forms.
- In September/October the annual meeting packets with bios and ballots will be mailed to all owners of record.
- Late September a reminder to vote and return the ballot will be sent to all property owners.
- The deadline for the return of mailed or hand carried completed official absentee ballots will be the Friday before the Harbor Island Annual Meeting, prior to the close of the Harbor Island Office at 4:00 PM. Also on the ballot, is a reminder in a large font, "please mail your ballot well in advance."
- Those unable to vote by mail may do so at the annual meeting.
- A CPA, accountant or auditor will monitor the counting of the votes in public.
- No fax or email ballots will be accepted.

Completing the enclosed form will be helpful for making informed selections. The bio portion should include why you wish to serve, experience and the type of business you own, work for or retired from and if there are clients on Harbor Island.

The candidate application must be signed by the candidate to indicate their willingness to serve. Please return all forms by August 21nd deadline to: Harbor Island Owners Association, Inc.
